

Award winning photographer available for 2013 season at Cooperstown Baseball World

Alan Lincourt, owner of Pro Image Photo and Cooperstown Action Photography has been the chosen photographer to shoot the Cooperstown Baseball World tournaments for more than a decade. Having a business in the Cooperstown area for 25 years, Alan has fine tuned the art of baseball game action photography. Alan's passion for baseball and photography has evolved into a systematic approach to shooting the game, increasing the chances of capturing those once in a lifetime memorable baseball moments.

Over the years, Alan has photographed the games at historic Doubleday Field in Cooperstown, shooting more than 1 million photos at just that venue. Other sports clients of Alan's include the New York State High School Athletic Association, Cooperstown Baseball World, Orioles Fantasy Camp, National Adult Baseball Association, Men's Senior Baseball League, Stan Musial League, Legends of Baseball, the National Soccer Hall of Fame, NCAA and others. Alan's photography adorns people's homes nationally and internationally.

Alan is scheduled to photograph the Cooperstown Baseball World 2013 season but is only available for a limited number of teams and games. If you would like Alan to capture your team's action memories during the week please contact him directly so he may plan to photograph as many teams and games possible. All bookings will be done on a first come first serve basis.

A $50 deposit is required in order to book him for a shoot of your game(s). Don't gamble with missing those rare and memorable shots while participating at Cooperstown Baseball World tournament, when you can have one of the best shooting your games.

Alan guarantees the Cooperstown Baseball World 2013 families will have some of the best photography of their athlete's career!
